3. NEEDS ANALYSIS

Many Trustees are volunteers who may have limited experience in:

- Governance
- Financial oversight
- Legal compliance
- Risk management
- Fiduciary responsibilities
- Conducting meetings
- Conflict management
- Decision-making

This often results in:

- Poor governance
- Non-compliance
- Increased disputes
- Financial mismanagement
- Delayed maintenance decisions
- Poor owner communication
- Increased legal risk

Property management companies frequently spend significant time guiding Trustees through matters that could be addressed through structured governance education.
